Vita

Dana Levin was born in New York City in 1984 to Andrea Osnow and Michael Levin. He attended middle school at Village Community School, High School at Packer Collegiate Institute, college at Skidmore College and Medical School at Drexel University College Of Medicine. After Completing a residency in emergency medicine at New York Presbyterian, the University Hospitals of Cornell and Columbia Universities, he continued his training with the UTMB residency in Aerospace medicine which includes an MPH. He currently resides in Houston Texas and makes frequent trips back to New York City to visit with friends and family.
