

26 NOV 1965

AMGB

Procurement of MOL Equipment

AMSK

These two systems are urgently required for use in feasibility testing of a proposed MOL EEG-EGK data gathering system. All American Manufacturers of this equipment have been contacted and this is the only equipment found to meet specifications which include crystal control, small size differential input and short delivery time. The manufacturer has tentatively agreed to make delivery on a short schedule, and every attempt to expedite by placing the order by telephone will help.

WILL E. THORNTON, JR.
Captain, USAF