

Donation of Blood and Blood Transfusion

Page 3

A U.S. commemorative postage stamp, to encourage voluntary blood donation, proposed by John A. Shively, M.D., President of the American Association of Blood Banks and E. Willis Hainlen, Editor Medical Subjects Unit of American Topical Times, was issued on March 12, 1971, at the annual Spring Stamps show, "Interpex", in New York.