Dear Sir;

In replay to your card of the 12th, I am very sorry to have to inform you that I am not able to locate your missing white shirt. I have searched high and low, but the article is not to be located. If, however, the shirt should be located before my final departure from this university on July 20, 1950, I will gladly send it on to you. I am sorry that I can not be of further service to you.

I would like to take this opportunity to notify you that a suit is pending against you in the Orange County Superior Court as a result of the inflammatory remarks contained in your card of the 12th against me. My legal advisors, Mr. J. Frank Newton, Mr. C. Jake Lambert, and Mr. Billy Lee Slate, advise me that I should be able to collect heavy damages.

I guess that you are really making time with Miss One-quarter-million Dollars this summer. I wish to tell you that we are all very ashamed of your actions at the University concerning other young women of your acquaintance. We all believed you to be a gentleman.

Let us hear from you sometime.

RANDALL WORTH SPARGER JR.
